IN HIS TIMING

After our Crusade weekly meeting on Tuesday night, I was finishing up a couple of random tasks when one of my disciples, Daniel, comes bolting in the door with a huge smile on his face. I wasn't sure what to make of it, but he immediately came over to me. He told me about this guy who had been staring at him after the weekly meeting and how God had placed it on his heart to talk with him. After a short conversation where the guy really opened up about his life, Daniel was able to share the Gospel with him. And he prayed to accept Christ right there! It's amazing to me to see what God can do when we just follow His guidance in even the strangest of situations. The story doesn't end there, however. It turns out that this guy had never been to a Campus Crusade meeting before and had actually called one of our staff members to learn what it was all about. He came and checked out Campus Crusade that week because of that conversation. And once he showed up, God moved in such a huge way, that he accepted Christ into his life. If that isn't God doing things in His perfect timing and plan, I don't know what is. The coolest part for me though, was in seeing Daniel's reaction. He gave thanks to God for allowing him to be a part of what He had done. What an awesome reaction! God is faithful in bringing people to Himself and God is faithful in allowing us to see Him work. Praise God for His faithfulness!

PRAYER REQUESTS

- For each guy who came to men's retreat to actually live with the mindset of furthering God's kingdom
- For the process of selecting new Bible study leaders to go into the dorms this next fall
- For my continued reliance on God in my own walk with Him, in my ministry, and with friendships

THROUGH HIS COMMUNITY

This last weekend, Campus Crusade held their men's retreat. We all packed up and headed out to the foothills of Bakersfield for a weekend of camping. As is only the case with a men's retreat, guys were doing situps over the fire, diving into freezing cold water, and of course, injuring as many other people as possible. But hey, at least we didn't have to medevac out anybody this year! Speaking of medevac, I think the definition is really fitting for a men's retreat...a helicopter for evacuating the wounded from a battlefield! Anyways, God totally used all of these things to bring us together as men over the course of the weekend. In learning how God wants to use what we have, what we know, and what we love, we saw how God continually brings us into the overall plan for His kingdom. He desires to use us to change lives and I truly believe that all two hundred guys that were there walked away desiring to live in that way. It was an awesome weekend where we developed in community with one another!
